

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MAINE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

LONNEL DIGGS

No.: 2:23-cr-00134-NT

AGREEMENT TO PLEAD GUILTY (WITH STIPULATIONS AND APPEAL WAIVER)

The United States of America, by and through Darcie N. McElwee, United States Attorney for the District of Maine, and Sheila W. Sawyer, Assistant United States Attorney, and Lonnel Diggs (hereinafter "Defendant"), acting for himself and through his counsel, Jeffrey Langholtz, Esquire, enter into the following Agreement based upon the promises and understandings set forth below.

1. Guilty Plea/Dismissal of Counts. Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Count Seven of the Indictment herein pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (Fed. R. Crim. P.). Count Seven charges the Defendant with knowingly possessing a firearm after having previously been convicted of a felony, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). The United States agrees that it will move to dismiss Counts One through Six of the Indictment pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) at the time of sentencing.¹ The parties agree and understand that if the Court should deny that motion to dismiss, the provisions of Rule 11(c)(5) will apply.

2. Sentencing/Penalties. Defendant agrees to be sentenced on the charge described above. Defendant understands that the penalties that are applicable to the charge described above are as follows:

- A. A maximum prison term of ten years;
- B. A maximum fine of $250,000;
- C. A mandatory special assessment of $100.00 for each count of conviction which Defendant agrees to pay at or before the time that he enters a guilty plea; and
- D. A term of supervised release of not more than three years. Defendant understands that his failure to comply with any of the conditions of supervised release may result in revocation of supervised release, requiring Defendant to serve up to two additional years in prison for any such revocation of supervised release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583.

In addition to the other penalties provided by law, the Court may also order Defendant to pay restitution to the victim or victims of the offense, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663 or § 3663A.

3. Agreements Regarding Sentencing. The parties agree to make the following non-binding recommendations as to sentencing:

- A. The parties agree to recommend that the Court find that the Defendant has accepted responsibility for the offense of conviction, and that the Court should reduce the Defendant's Adjusted Offense Level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1. The Government reserves the right not to recommend a reduction under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 if, at any time between his execution of this Agreement and sentencing, the Defendant: (a) fails to admit a complete factual basis for the plea; (b) fails to truthfully admit his conduct in the offense of conviction; (c) engages in conduct which results in an adjustment under U.S.S.G. § 3C 1.1; (d) falsely denies or frivolously contests relevant conduct for which the Defendant is accountable under U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3 or previous convictions that the defendant has sustained; or (e) engages in new criminal conduct. Defendant understands that he may not withdraw the guilty plea if, for any of the reasons listed above, the Government does not recommend that he receive a reduction in Offense Level for acceptance of responsibility.

B. Defendant agrees not to contest the facts set forth in Paragraphs One through Thirty-Five of the Indictment and agrees that the conduct described therein constitutes relevant conduct as to the Defendant under U.S.S.G. §1B1.3.

The parties expressly agree and understand that should the Court reject either or both of the recommendations of the parties, Defendant will not thereby be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty. The parties agree and understand that the Court has the discretion to impose any lawful sentence.

4. Appeal Waivers. Defendant is aware that Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742 affords a defendant the right to appeal the sentence imposed. Knowing that, Defendant waives the right to appeal the following:

- A. Defendant's guilty plea and any other aspect of Defendant's conviction in the above-captioned case; and
- B. A sentence of imprisonment that does not exceed eight years.

Defendant's waiver of his right to appeal shall not apply to appeals based on a right that has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review.

The number of months mentioned in this paragraph does not necessarily constitute an estimate of the sentence that the parties expect will be imposed.

5. New Criminal Conduct. Defendant agrees that he will not commit any other federal or state crime.

6. Consequences of Breach. If Defendant violates or fails to perform any obligations under this Agreement ("a breach"), the United States will be released from its obligations hereunder, including its obligations to make any sentencing recommendations under Paragraph 3, and may fully prosecute Defendant on all criminal charges that can be brought against Defendant. With respect to such a prosecution:

- A. The United States may use any statement that Defendant made pursuant to this Agreement, including statements made during plea discussions and plea colloquies, and the fact that Defendant pleaded guilty, and Defendant hereby waives any claim under Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence or Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure that such statements and guilty plea are inadmissible.
- B. Defendant waives any and all defenses based on the statute of limitations with respect to any such prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this Agreement is signed by the parties.

If the United States chooses to exercise its rights under this paragraph, the determination of whether Defendant has committed a breach shall be made by the Court upon an appropriate motion. In a proceeding on such motion, the United States shall have the burden to establish Defendant's breach by a preponderance of the evidence.

7. Speedy Trial Waiver. Defendant agrees to waive, and hereby does waive, any and all rights he might have under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-64, from the date of the execution of this Agreement and continuing thereafter through and including the date upon which sentence is imposed. In the event that the Court determines that Defendant has breached this Agreement, as set forth in Paragraph 6 of this Agreement, then the waiver described in this Paragraph shall continue through and including the date on which the Court determines that such a breach has occurred.

Defendant expressly consents to the entry of an Order by the Court excluding such periods of time from such consideration.

8. Forfeiture. Defendant agrees to waive any claim to, and assist the United States in effecting the forfeiture or other transfer of, any property that may be subject to forfeiture to the United States under any law of the United States, including, but not limited to, the firearms and ammunition described in the Forfeiture Notice in the Indictment.

9. Validity of Other Agreements; Signature. This Agreement supersedes any prior understandings, promises, or conditions between the United States and Defendant. However, in the event that Defendant fails to enter his guilty plea or is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea entered hereunder, and the Court determines that Defendant has not breached this Agreement, then any proffer agreement between the parties shall remain in effect. No additional understandings, promises, or conditions will be entered into unless in writing and signed by all parties. The signature of Defendant in the space designated signifies his full and voluntary acceptance of this Agreement.
